

HEAVILY ARMED

Editor Lyons, of St. Joseph, Mo.,
Delivers His Lecture

On "Roman Influence in Public Schools," in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The Flow of Oratory Winds Up With a
Flow of Blood—Fully Thirty Shots
Were Fired—Lyons Arrested and Will Probably Be Hanged.

CHEYENNE, Sept. 26.—T. J. Lyons, editor of the St. Joseph American, of St. Joe, Mo., attempted to lecture here Sunday night on "Roman Influence in Public Schools."

He had received an intimation that trouble would ensue if he carried out his intention, and when he appeared on the platform he exposed two six-shooters, which he said he would use if necessary to protect himself.

There were fifty people present, many of them being Catholics. He was frequently interrupted during his lecture, and at last he called upon the policeman and ushers present to clear the hall. Amid a scene of wild confusion this was partially accomplished.

When nearly all the people had got out Lyons took a revolver in each hand and started to leave the hall. As he reached the door Patrick Nolan, a policeman, attempted to disarm him. The crowd closed in upon the two, and Lyons commenced shooting.

The firing became general, and fully thirty shots were fired within a few seconds. Patrick Moore, a boiler maker, was shot twice, one of the bullets passing through his body, inflicting a probably fatal wound. Policeman Nolan was stabbed in the face and neck, receiving two serious wounds. The shooting scattered the crowd, and Lyons, with a body guard of friends, reached his hotel. An excited crowd of men threatened to lynch him, and followed and surrounded the hotel.

Sheriff Kelley arrested Lyons in his room and took his revolver from him, after which he was taken to Ft. Russell for safe keeping. The excitement over the affair is very great, and crowds of men are gathered on the street corners discussing the matter.

If Moore, who is very badly wounded, should die, an attempt to lynch Lyons will surely be made. Lyons is supposed to have come here under the auspices of an anti-Catholic organization which exists in this city. It is not known who did the stabbing.

THE PREACHER A LIAR.

That's the Way a Sailor Interrupted a Chicago Minister's Discourse.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Rev. T. G. Milsted, pastor of the Unity Church, has for some time entertained the idea of erecting a bethel for the sailors which frequent this port. Sunday morning he made the matter a subject of earnest appeal to the members of his congregation. He dwelt at length upon the great need of such an institution in Chicago, and said: "We must do something to save these men. They now have no place to go but to the dives and saloons. What wonder then that they are so disreputable?" "You're a liar!" yelled a voice in the back of the church. "I'm a sailor, and we are not disreputable. We don't want any bethel home. What we want is more wages," and the toiler of the seas delivered to the congregation his personal opinion of the pastor, which was neither flattering nor couched in polite language. All efforts to pacify him failed, and the profane argumentative son of Neptune was hustled through the sacred portals by an array of ushers. No attempt was made to arrest him.

Furious Storm at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 26.—One of the heaviest thunderstorms of the season passed over this section Sunday night, doing great damage. A high wind prevailed at the time, and the rain fell in torrents. Trees and fences were blown down, telegraph, telephone and electric light wires prostrated, and several houses were struck by lightning. As far as known, however, no one was seriously injured. In the Butcher's Run district, and in the higher parts of the city, cellars were flooded, and small out-houses washed from their foundations. The storm left the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Cos. badly crippled, while hundreds of telephones were rendered useless. As a result of the prostration of electric light wires, whole districts were in total darkness. The loss by the storm can not now be estimated.

Instructions to Collectors.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The secretary of treasury has issued a circular in which collectors are instructed to reject on entry all invoices which do not distinctly set forth the per se value of the goods, and they will not permit a deduction from the price so declared of any so-called non-dutiable items. If consignees do not comply with the law in this respect, their consignments must be treated as unclaimed merchandise.

Big Stake Won by La Fleche.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Saturday was the last day of the Manchester September meeting. One of the great events of the racing season came off there Saturday. This was the race for the Lancashire plate of 10,000 sovereigns. It was won by Baron de Hirsch's La Fleche; J. H. Houldsworth's Orieto was second and James Sharry's colt Llanthony third.

The Faith Cure.

MUSKIE, Ind., Sept. 26.—Mrs. Col. Woodring, who has been sick with consumption for a year, has been relieved of her affliction by the faith cure. She has deserted her bed, occupied constantly since last March, and now does her house work.

After Leading Jockeys.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Whitehall Review hints at a conspiracy between two leading jockeys to defraud the public by pulling horses, and demands an inquiry. The affair has created a sensation among the sporting public.

Eminent Jurist Dead.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 26.—Judge A. Pratt Adams, one of Georgia's most eminent jurists and public men, died here Sunday.

"KING ALBERT" CONQUERED.

The Leader of a Notorious Gang of Colored Thieves Meets a Terrible Death.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 26.—With a five-inch blade of a dagger sticking to the hilt in the top of his head, Albert Davis, known as "King Albert," the leader of the Blue Wing gang, the most law-defying organization of colored thieves and cut-throats that ever infested this city, ran three squares Sunday afternoon, and dropped in a dying condition. As he fell the handle struck a stone. The brittle steel snapped at the hilt, and the entire blade was left in his brain. His agonies were horrible, and his death is expected at any moment. The physicians have pronounced him beyond recovery.

This city will be rid of one of the most lawless characters that ever lived here, as well as one of the shrewdest. For six years "King Albert" and his followers have been a menace to law and order. Recent police raids have ridden the city of many of the Blue Wing gang, and he is among the last. He met his fall at the hands of Albert C. Neinstiel, a barkeeper. "King Albert" walked into Neinstiel's place Sunday morning, and was ordered out. He left with the threat that he would return when it suited his convenience. Sunday afternoon he went back to the saloon and dared Neinstiel to put his head out. The bar-keeper, knowing the character with whom he had to deal, drew a dagger and plunged it into the man's abdomen. Withdrawing it, he sent the blade to the hilt in the top of the man's skull. It was too tight to be withdrawn, and with only the handle protruding from his head, he ran three squares, fell and broke off the blade. He was taken to the city hospital, where the physicians were compelled to substitute the tools of a blacksmith for the more delicate instruments of the surgeon to withdraw the five-inch blade. It had to be tapped and loosened with a small hammer before it could be taken out with a pair of large pincers.

INNOCENT MAN HANGED

For a Crime He Never Committed—The Guilty Assassin Confesses.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—Ex-Judge J. C. Bauman, of Kennerlyville, was arrested in this city charged with being accessory to the attempted assassination of Judge Long, in Kennerlyville, La., last July. He was taken to Gretna by Sheriff Landridge, of Jefferson parish, and locked up.

Bauman's arrest grows out of the confession of Dennis Richards, colored, who was arrested last Friday in the swamp near Boutte. Richards admits that he fired the shot which wounded Judge Long, but further says that Bauman offered him $100 to kill Long.

He says that he was in communication with Bauman after the shooting and that Bauman promised to send him money and use his influence to get him out of trouble.

The confession of Richards was a surprise and the accusation he makes against Bauman creates a sensation, both in Kennerlyville and in this city, where he is well known. Another feature in this case is that a few weeks ago a colored man named Dixon was lynched for the very crime which Richards now confesses that he committed by himself, instigated by Bauman.

An Astonished Organist.

BREMEN, Ind., Sept. 26.—Sunday morning while services were being held at the German Lutheran church, in this city, a snake began crawling out of the large pipe organ. George Wambagans, the organist, was playing, when he was horrified to see the reptile crawling out on the key board. He motioned to Philip Stockinger to come to the organ, who, taking his pocket handkerchief, seized the snake and threw it to the floor. Hardly a person in the large audience was aware of the strange visitor's presence until services were over. The snake was a milk snake, about two feet in length, black and white spotted. How it got into the house and then into the organ is a mystery.

A New General of Jesuits.

ROME, Sept. 26.—It is rumored here that the Society of Jesus held a meeting and elected a new general of the order. It is said that the name of the member selected for this office will be announced on October 2. The members of the society were required to take an oath that they would not reveal the place where the meeting was held, but it is known that it certainly was not held in Rome.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 26.—Judge Z. W. Lakenane Sunday received a telegram from Supreme Representative J. V. Friedman, from Portland, Ore., stating that the sovereign grand lodge of Oddfellows, in session there, had sanctioned the scheme to build a national sanitarium for that order in Hot Springs. It will represent an investment of $500,000.

Trouble About Profits.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—A sensation was caused among the sport-loving people of the city when it became known that there was a good-sized row among the members of the Olympic club, before which so many noted pugilists had appeared. The trouble grows out of the division of the profits earned during the late fighting carnival.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 26.—Judge A. Pratt Adams, one of Georgia's most eminent jurists and public men, died here Sunday.

REFUSED BAIL.

O'Donnell Must Remain in Jail to Await Trial.

The Judge's Decision Caused Strikers' Countenances to Change.

In Judge Porter's Opinion the Evidence Was Too Direct—Large Sum of Money Comes to the Strikers From the Amalgamated Association.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 26.—In the criminal court Saturday morning Judge Porter handed down a decision in the application of Hugh O'Donnell, the Homestead strike leader, charged with complicity in murder of J. W. Kline, the Pinkerton detective. The application was refused, and O'Donnell must remain in jail until his trial.

When O'Donnell was brought in from the jail he looked cheerful, and evidently expected to be released. As the opinion was read his countenance changed, and when it was ended deep disappointment could be read on every feature. He was immediately taken back to his cell.

In his opinion, Judge Porter held that the evidence against the defendant was too direct, and therefore he could not allow bail. "All this testimony," said he, "is liable to be contradicted, explained or impeached on a trial, but in this, as in all preliminary hearings, we must accept the testimony offered by this committee as true. It indicates that the killing in question was done in a riot by a body of men who had a common understanding or agreement that they should resist all who opposed them, to the extent of taking life, if necessary, to accomplish their purpose; that the defendant was a party to this combination and that he was present upon the ground with full knowledge of the proceedings of the rioters and giving them encouragement." The decision was a surprise to the strikers.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Sept. 26.—The locked-out men Saturday received their first benefits from the Amalgamated association. Nearly $10,000 were sent to Homestead to be paid to the men, and it is stated that fully one-half of this amount was given to members of the mechanical departments, who struck out of sympathy with the locked-out men. The arrival of this money, which is the first substantial evidence of support from the Amalgamated association, has a very cheering effect among the locked-out men, and Saturday they scarcely needed the meeting in order to "brace" them for the struggle.

It is really surprising how confident in victory the men are growing. Two weeks ago they were all very blue and it seemed only a matter of hours before they would all go to work; to-day there is not a man in Homestead who does not feel that victory is certain. While this is pay day for the Amalgamated members it is also pay day at the mill, and about $60,000 is being distributed among the non-unionists. This is within $20,000 of the amount paid before when the mill was running in full. There are no more desertions reported, and several steel workers have come in.

A CONFERENCE

With a View to Lifting the Cholera Quarantine in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 26.—Health Officer Prendergast, of Cincinnati, held a conference here Friday night with Secretary Probst, of the state board of health, relative to lifting the cholera quarantine. It is desired by Dr. Prendergast to withdraw the inspection system established by Cincinnati at the same time that the state board of health discontinues its precautionary measures. After thoroughly discussing the situation Secretary Probst and Dr. Prendergast agreed to leave the question undecided until the secretary has visited several of the state inspecting stations. Secretary Probst is to communicate with Dr. Prendergast as soon as the former returns from his tour of examination, and it is probable the quarantine, both state and local, will be discontinued next Monday.
